Stan Ross, CEO of Digital Ally, stated “We are happy to take this opportunity presented by LD Micro to share our excitement about 2020 and beyond. The uniqueness of the virtual conference will allow for us to reach a wide variety of investors that otherwise may not have attended the conference. We look forward to sharing our story.”

“We are delighted to be hosting our third virtual event in order to showcase some of the truly unique names in micro-cap” stated Chris Lahiji, President of LD Micro. “There are a many people and companies who are unable to attend our live events, due to any number of reasons, so we are happy to offer an additional way for companies to present to investors without taking a lot of time out of their day-to-day operations. While virtual events will never replace the experience of sitting in the same room as other humans, it is a great format for updating the investor community and getting increased exposure.”

The conference will be held via webcast and will feature over 40 companies in the small / micro-cap space.

About LD Micro

LD Micro was founded in 2006 with the sole purpose of being an independent resource in the microcap space. What started out as a newsletter highlighting unique companies has transformed into an event platform hosting several influential conferences annually (Invitational, Summit, and Main Event).

In 2015, LDM launched the first pure microcap index (the LDMi) to exclusively provide intraday information on the entire sector. LD will continue to provide valuable tools for the benefit of everyone in the small and microcap universe.
