DIGITAL ALLY AND RAHAL LETTERMAN LANIGAN RACING PROVIDE FANS WITH UNPRECEDENTED ACCESS FOR THE 103RD INDIANAPOLIS 500

First-Ever Live Team Garage Camera Offers Fans an Inside Look at Preparations for the Greatest Spectacle in Racing in a Multi-Year Agreement

BROWNSBURG, Ind. (May 13, 2019) – Rahal Letterman Lanigan Racing (RLL) and Digital Ally, a company with the mission to provide law enforcement agencies, emergency management, and commercial companies with the highest quality video solutions and software management, announced today a multi-year official partnership, naming Digital Ally “Official Video Solutions Partner” of the team’s NTT IndyCar Series program.

The relationship will give fans an unprecedented live look inside the team’s garage during preparations for the 103rd running of the Indianapolis 500 on May 26 via cameras mounted in the team’s garage for drivers Graham Rahal, 2017 Indy 500 winner Takuma Sato and rookie Jordan King.

“We are thrilled to team up with Digital Ally and utilize their technology to give fans the first-ever live look inside a team garage for our biggest race of the year,” said Bobby Rahal, team co-owner of Rahal Letterman Lanigan Racing with David Letterman and Michael Lanigan. “Winning the Indy 500 changed my life and being able to share the process and all of the things that go into this race and make it so special is a pleasure. It really puts a spotlight on all of our team members that put so much time and energy into making this a successful event. They really are the backbone of Rahal Letterman Lanigan Racing and we are so proud to work with Digital Ally to offer this access.”

Digital Ally was created to develop and manufacture technology that provides customers with the ultimate liability protection and evidence recording capabilities, coupled with convenience and ease of use. Digital Ally provides law enforcement agencies along with emergency management and commercial companies with the highest quality video solutions and software management.

“When we were approached about this unique opportunity we quickly understood RLL’s vision and as huge Indy 500 fans we could not be more excited. Further, partnering with such a world class team made the decision easy,” said Stan Ross, CEO of Digital Ally.

Since 2017 Digital Ally has been a “Preferred Technology Provider of NASCAR.” Most recently, Digital Ally was the title sponsor of the NASCAR Gander Outdoors Truck Series race at Kansas Speedway on May 10 and the Monster Energy NASCAR Cup Series race at the same track on May 11.

The 103rd running of the Indianapolis 500 will take place on Sunday, May 26. NBC will begin race day coverage at 11 a.m. EST. To view the preparations for the Indianapolis 500, please visit www.rahall.com or www.digitalally.com.
